Bio Summary

Athena Hu is a 12-year-old dancer with a deep passion for ballet and an unwavering dedication to her craft. She began her dance journey at the age of 7, training in Traditional Chinese Dance at Jun Lu Performing Arts. In the summer of 2022, she expanded her artistry by transitioning to classical ballet under the guidance of Ms. Miko Fogarty.

Now a committed student in Bayer Ballet Academy's prestigious Day Program, Athena trains under the esteemed mentorship of Ms. Inna Bayer, refining her technique through the rigorous Vaganova method. Her relentless work ethic and love for ballet fuel her aspirations of becoming a professional ballerina. With each step, she continues to push her limits, striving for excellence in pursuit of her dream.
