

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)
and the DAAD Alumni Association of the US request the pleasure of your company at the 2022 Sound Understanding Concert

Thursday, April 21st, 2022

Time: 7:00 pm

Location: Weill Recital Hall, Carnegie Hall

We are proud to present some of the most talented and promising new musicians from Germany.
They were selected in a nationwide competition
among the best graduates of German music colleges.
They each received a DAAD award to study for one year in the US or Canada.

Sound Understanding Martina Barta, voice
DAAD Music Fellows 2021/22 Felicita Schiffner, violin
Sebastian Winter, composition

Molly Germer, violin
Julia Jung Un Suh, violin
Lena Vidulich, viola
DAAD Friends Thea Mesirow, cello
Rafael Enciso, double bass
Christian McGhee, drums
Francesco Pollon, piano

This year's concert will feature classical and jazz music.
The program will be framed by two compositions of Johann Sebastian Bach and will feature original compositions by DAAD fellow Sebastian Winter and DAAD alumni Carl Christian Bettendorf and Alexander Liebermann.

Ticket reservations: Click here to reserve your ticket(s) or contact Amra Dumisic (dumisic@daad.de). Tickets are free of charge, but a suggested donation of $25 would be appreciated. You can make a donation here. Reservations must be received by Tuesday, April 19th.

Support the DAAD Alumni Association: If you cannot attend, but would like to make a donation to the DAAD Alumni Association, please click here.
