

LEGACY OF VÁCLAV HAVEL – THE FUTURE OF THE EU
AND THE ASSOCIATED COUNTRIES RELATIONSHIP

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

NOVEMBER 10TH, 2022; THE ROOMS HOTEL, TBILISI

10:30 Registration/Welcome Coffee

11:00 Opening

Foreword - The Legacy of Václav Havel - tolerance, responsibility in our time

Moderator: Mrs. Ivana Bursíková, Czech Centre Tbilisi

Mr. Konstantin Natsvlishvili, Advisor to the President of Georgia

Mr. Martin Dvořák, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic

Mr. Ghia Nodia, Director at the International School of Caucasus Studies at the Ilia State University

12:00 Panel I

Development of Eastern Partnership and EU-Georgia relations

Moderator: Mr. Ghia Nodia, Director at the International School of Caucasus Studies at the Ilia State University

Mr. Lawrence Meredith, Director of Neighbourhood East and Institution Building, Directorate-General for Neighbourhood and Enlargement Negotiations, European Commission (video presentation)

Mr. Irakli Kurashvili, Director General, Directorate General of European Integration, MFA of Georgia

Mr. Ivan Gabal, Sociologist cooperating with Czech Universities on different educational projects

Mr. George Khelashvili, Committee of the Parliament of Georgia

Mr. Andrii Kasianov, Chargé d'affaires of Ukraine

13:30 Buffet Lunch

14:30 Panel II

Europe as a Task – the Role of Academic Sphere

Moderator: Ms. Marina Muskhelishvili, Tbilisi State University

Mr. Kakha Gogolashvili, Director of the Centre of EU Studies at the Georgian Foundation for Strategic and International Studies

Mr. Giorgi Kekelidze, Director of the National Parliamentary Library of Georgia

Ms. Maka Nachkhebia, Researcher, Shota Rustaveli Institute

Mr. Konstantin Natsvlishvili, Advisor to the President of Georgia

Mr. Ghia Nodia, Director at the International School of Caucasus Studies at the Ilia State University

