We are looking for a proposal writer

This position involves English-language writing for donors about science education and literacy programming at the Davidson Institute of Science Education.

A part-time position

Education and skills:

- 5+ years of a proven track record of writing about complex subjects in clear, concise English at the layman’s level and with a marketing approach
- Native-level English and superior writing and editing skills
- A high level of proficiency in conversational Hebrew is necessary, as well as reading comprehension in Hebrew
- B.A

Apply for: jobs.davidson@weizmann.ac.il

Position number 22