

Ferry tickets: All discounts announced by the companies

Discounts on ferry tickets were announced by the companies, after the meeting at Megaro Maximos , where the ferry operators were asked to reduce the cost of transport for the average Greek family.

The reduction in prices is carried out depending on the company and the commercial policy it follows and will concern specific trunk lines, i.e. those that have a departure from or arrival at the ports:

- of Piraeus

- of Rafina
- of Thessaloniki
- of Kavala

In particular, the Attica Group announced a 20% discount for families and groups of 3 to 5 people in economy class and numbered seats with a car. for trips from Monday 17/7/23 to Sunday 10/9/23 on all itineraries from Piraeus to the Greek islands both on the outbound and return itineraries.

It also offers a 50% discount on social tourism tickets for all the group's destinations in Cyclades, Saronic, Dodecanese, North Aegean, Sporades and Crete, with the result that beneficiaries pay only 5% of the total fare.

SEAJETS of ship owner Marios Iliopoulos from July 18 to September 18 offers families of four with their vehicle a 30% discount on return tickets. A 50% discount applies to those with multiple children. He also announced a 20% discount for permanent residents of the Aegean islands and a 40% discount for permanent residents of the Dodecanese Islands on the Sitia - Dodecanese route.

Golden Star Ferries , in addition to the mandatory discounts provided by law, the company announced a 20% discount with its conventional ships, for the period from July 17 to September 10, every Tuesday, on individual tickets (economy and distinguished class as well as airplane type seat), in cars and two-wheelers.

Fast Ferries wanting to contribute to the increase in traffic to the islands it serves with its itineraries states that it is establishing a "discount fare day". From 19/7/2023 until 6/9/2023 every Wednesday Fast Ferries will offer a discount fare reduced by 20% on all its itineraries from Rafina to Andros, Tinos, Mykonos, Naxos as well as on the return itineraries to Rafina.

Varvitsiotis: The government's moves for cheap ferry tickets have taken hold

"The government's moves for cheap ferry tickets have taken hold. Already major ferry companies have announced a brave package of offers and discounts for Greek families who want to move to the islands".

This is what the Minister of Shipping and Island Policy, Miltiadis Varvitsiotis, said today in a post on the internet, on the occasion of the discounts announced by four major ferry companies.
