

Utikas for Aris: He cannot be absent from the meeting with UEFA

"It is necessary in cooperation with UEFA and the PAE to put an end to the violence inside and outside the stadiums. Large and populous clubs must contribute substantially to finding solutions, especially when their fans and supporters become the tragic victims of fan violence.

From next week's meeting with the European federation, the club that in recent years has mourned two of its own children cannot be absent. »

And he adds:

PAE Aris cannot be absent, which has been competing in European stadiums continuously for the last 5 years, just like the other 4 major Greek football clubs. In fact, at a time when the team's fans are distinguished for their cool, non-extreme behavior.

I want to believe that ARIS has not been invited to next Wednesday's meeting by mistake.

His contribution will certainly be valuable. After all, the fact that the President and Managing Director, alongside her brother Theodoros, is Irini Karypidou, a woman with rich activity not only in the football field, but also on a social and philanthropic level, strengthens the guarantees for the effectiveness of the upcoming meeting.
