Honorary Ambassador for Youth Sports Games	Youth Sports Games is an amateur sports event for children and youth in Europe, bringing together kids from primary and secondary schools enabling them to participate in 10 sports disciplines. The Games are organized in 3 countries: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Serbia. In 2018, more than 160,000 participants competed. Youth Sports Games started in 1996 in Split, Croatia. The primary motive was to enable high-school students to participate in organized sporting events and other free activities. The idea grew and nowadays, the Youth Sports Games became the largest amateur sporting event in this part of Europe. Children and young people from all participating countries are offered the possibility of attending the competitions while embracing the values of trust, friendship and good neighbourly relations and promoting sustainability.
