Such due diligence is performed in accordance with the requirements of the money laundering and terrorist financing activities regulations, pursuant to the terms of KYC.

In view of the Anti-Fraud Policy the Company is responsible for:

- ensuring efficient and effective systems, procedures and internal controls are in place to enable the prevention and detection of the Prohibited Conduct;
- ensuring the Anti-Fraud Commissioner identifies the Prohibited Conduct risks in their areas of business and that all systems, procedures and internal controls are properly implemented and enforced;
- ensuring all members of the operational anti-fraud department have a duty to report any internal and external suspicions or incidents of the Prohibited Conduct;
- reviewing continuously its systems, procedures and internal controls through risk management processes and audit arrangements;
- reporting any suspicions regarding the Prohibited Conduct to the relevant state authorities.

5. FRAUD DETECTION AND INVESTIGATION

Anti-Fraud Commissioners are the first line of detection, investigation and protection in preventing the Prohibited Conduct of Users and evaluating transactions. The Anti-Fraud Commissioner will be responsible for the proper fulfillment of the Anti-Fraud Policy.

(a) Authority

The Anti-Fraud Commissioner, through the Operational Anti-Fraud Department, working in close collaboration with the Compliance Officer, shall be responsible for:

- receiving reports of alleged or suspected Prohibited Conduct involving the Company, its Users and/or related transactions;
- investigating such matters and cooperating directly with the Nominated Officer in order to facilitate the investigations;
- reporting its findings to the Company management and relevant authorities, as well as any other third party on a need-to-know basis.

For situations requiring an urgent response, the Anti-Fraud Commissioner may take any necessary measures required for the investigation, notably to preserve evidence.

(b) Independence

The Operational Anti-Fraud Department shall enjoy complete independence in the exercise of its responsibilities. The Anti-Fraud Commissioner shall have full authority to open, pursue, close and report on any investigation on the Prohibited Conduct within its remit without prior notice to, the consent of, or interference from any other person or entity.

(c) Professional Standards

All Prohibited Conduct investigations conducted by the Operational Anti-Fraud Department shall be fair and impartial, with due regard to the rights of the Users and persons or entities involved. The presumption of innocence applies to those alleged to have engaged in misconduct. Those involved in the Prohibited Conduct investigation (be those under investigation or those conducting the investigation) should be aware of their rights and obligations and ensure they are fully respected.

(d) Cooperation

All Users are required to cooperate with the Operational Anti-Fraud Department and the Anti-Fraud Commissioner promptly, fully, efficiently and in the manner specified by the Operational Anti-Fraud Department, including by answering relevant questions and complying with requests for information and records.

(e) Confidentiality

In accordance with the Company's internal rules on access to information, all information and documents collected and generated during a Prohibited Conduct investigation, not already in the public domain, shall be kept strictly confidential. The confidentiality of the information collected will be respected both in the interests of those concerned and the integrity of the investigation.

In particular, during the Prohibited Conduct investigation the confidentiality will be respected in so far as it would not be contrary to the interests of the investigation.

The Operational Anti-Fraud Department shall disclose such information and documents only to those persons or entities authorized to receive them or otherwise on a need-to-know basis.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

The Company will review the Anti-Fraud Policy to reflect new legal and regulatory developments and ensure good practice.

I WARRANT AND GUARANTEE THAT I HAVE NO INTENTION TO COMMIT ANY OF PROHIBITED CONDUCT ACTS DESCRIBED HEREIN; FURTHERMORE, I CONSENT TO ANY CHECKS DUE TO INVESTIGATION UNDER THE ANTI-FRAUD POLICY AND I AGREE TO COOPERATE FULLY AND PROMPTLY WITH THE ANTI-FRAUD COMMISSIONER WITHIN SUCH INVESTIGATION.
