ENABLING DIGNITY

WITH REFUGEE-LED PARTNERS ON THE
FRONT LINES

Our Model Sets Us Apart

We amplify humanitarian impact by: 1) promoting and partnering with remarkable refugee-led nonprofits on the front lines of war; 2) strengthening project design to bridge silos and spur public-private-civil society partnerships; and 3) allocating 93% of expenses to project grants and program support.

Supportive of local capacity. Strong on design. Light on overhead.

What We Do

We support our refugee-led partners with project design, grants, monitoring, and technical support, as needed, to carry out essential activities in 3 program areas:

Protection & Self-Reliance

- Facilitate refugee access to documents to legitimize stay and access work and basic services
- Support female job readiness and incentivize employer demand
- Secure transitional social aid and specialized protection services

Education & Health

- Conduct regulated non-formal education for children and youth
- Rehabilitate and stock hospitals and mobile clinics in areas of violence
- Provide health care, screenings, awareness, case management, and medical expense coverage

Shelter

- Secure rent-free or subsidized urban shelter for the most vulnerable
- Repair war-damaged housing to accommodate IDPs
- Distribute shelter materials and fuel for heating and cooking

Our joint project designs empower the most vulnerable by integrating both a gender and rights-based urban lens.

Our Vision & Joint Impact

It is our vision that refugee-led partners more readily access funding and projects better meet the self-reliance needs of urban refugees and IDPs.

Since our founding in late 2015, supported projects have assisted 329,587 refugees, IDPs and locals in Syria, Lebanon, and Turkey.

Moving beyond handouts.
