

CANNES 2011 Predictions Reel

PRESENTED BY LEO BURNETT WORLDWIDE

Leo Burnett's annual Cannes Predictions Reel is culled from award-winning commercials and campaigns from the top advertising award shows each year. For over two decades, the reel has been prescient in identifying Grand Prix winners, while highlighting some of the best new work produced by the global marketing industry.

Donald Gunn, former Director of Creative Resources at Leo Burnett Worldwide, created the reel in 1987. This year, a team of researchers from Leo Burnett Worldwide compiled the reel, narrowing the contenders to 40 selections from 14 countries, spread across multiple product categories and media channels.
