PHU QUOC ISLAND

PHU QUOC ISLAND VIETNAM

Phu Quoc - The Pearl Island of Asia - is the largest island in Vietnam, located in the Gulf of Thailand, 45km West of Ha Tien and 15km south of the coast of Cambodia and is a part of Kien Giang Province as Phu Quoc District. Phu Quoc Island has a total area of 574 square kilometers (222 sqm) and a permanent population of approximately 85,000. Phu Quoc island is no lightweight: at 48km long and has about the same size as Singapore.

The district of Phu Quoc includes the island proper and 21 smaller islets. The district seat, Duong Dong, located on the west coast, is also the largest town on the island. The economy is centered on fishing, agriculture and a fast-growing tourism sector.

By 2020, Phu Quoc becomes the island marine ecological tourist city at a high level, competitiveness and the ability to connect with other countries in the world.

SALINDA SUSTAINABILITY

Our journey as hoteliers has given us a new mission: in addition to the luxurious beach retreat we wish to offer you, we aim to give nature a holiday too. Our Salinda Family wishes to create a clean and sustainable hotel where you could relax in the knowledge that we are trying our best to protect our home - Phu Quoc Island.

From 2019, we became the official partner of WWF-Vietnam for Plastic Reducing Management on Phu Quoc Island that is dedicated to promoting, educating, and continuing to reduce and eliminate single-use plastics in our operations and daily lives.

In 2020, we were recognized with the Environment Management Certificate ISO 14001:2015 for incorporating environmental practices in our management system.

SALINDA SPA

Salinda Spa is well known for its distinctive traditional massages with signature treatments that pays tribute to Vietnam's natural ingredients and ancient Thai wellness secrets delivered by our professional Thai therapists.

WHAT'S YOUR ELEMENT?

It is believed that balance within and between the four main elements (fire, air, water, and earth) forms the foundation for good health. We invite you to harmonize your energy and inner balance by discovering your elemental nature starting from personalized welcome drink and spa consultation to wearing color-coded Thai cultural wear - sarongs - throughout your spa journey.

SIGNATURE THERAPIES

Our treatments, from UNESCO-protected Thai massages to Signature Pearl Massage, embody the essence of inner balance by carefully calibrating music of Reiki and natural beats to create an everlasting restorative and purification effects on your internal balance.

IMMERSED IN SERENITY

The interior design of Salinda Spa is culturally oriented, creating a peaceful atmosphere with a blend of Thai and Vietnamese décor. The balance of wooden and bronze elements with textured stones and the intriguing interplay between darkness and light transforms your spa treatment into a cultural immersion of wellness retreat and intimacy. The sound of a flowing water fountain in the lobby connects the mind to the body and encourages its innate healing ability throughout your spa journey.
