Iran has one of the fastest-growing underground church movements in the world. With limited access to physical church gatherings, digital platforms have become a lifeline for millions of seekers.

Farsi language Jesus.net resources – including A Miracle Every Day – are reaching Iranians inside the country and across the diaspora.

“We cannot meet openly, but we can connect digitally. Jesus.net has given us a safe, powerful way to disciple new believers.”

Because of You

“Everything you have seen today—every story, every language, every life—exists because of people like you.”

You are not a bystander to what God is doing through Jesus.net. You are part of it.

Your partnership has funded the platforms, trained the coaches, and made it possible for a young man in Pakistan to type a question about Jesus into his phone—and find someone ready to answer.

This ministry exists because you chose to be involved. We don't take that lightly.
