

CONFERENCE

The Jutland Corridor

Programme

Start	Subject	4 June 2014 from 12.00 until 16.00
11.30	Registration and lunch
12.00	Welcome and introduction Carl Holst, Chairman of the Region of Southern Denmark
12.15	The Jutland Corridor - facts, opportunities and principal challenges <ul style="list-style-type: none">• COWI and Georg Consulting presents the results of the analysis of the Jutland Corridor• Professor Jörg Knieling, HafenCity University in Hamburg, sets focus on strengths and weaknesses of the Jutland Corridor, viewed against the background of the INTERREG-project "Urban-Rural Partnerships in Metropolitan Areas " (URMA) and the analysis presented.• Debate and discussion among the audience about Jutland Corridor's key potential and principal challenges, viewed against the analysis presented.
13.20	City regions and development corridors - from the perspective of national and international competition Professor Alan Harding, University of Liverpool
13.45	Planning and growth in city regions Holger Bisgaard, Head of Division, The Danish Nature Agency
14.00	Break
14.30	The potentials and positions of strength of the Jutland Corridor - from the perspectives of North Germany and West Denmark <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Thomas Littmann, Senate Chancellery, Hamburg• Thorsten Augustin, Head of Department of European Affairs, Land Schleswig-Holstein• Bente Hornbæk, Staff Services Manager, Municipality of Skanderborg, Business Region Aarhus
15.20	The Jutland Corridor - Perspectives for Norway Jostein Soland, former director of and current senior advisor to The Trade and Business Organisation in the Stavanger Region.
15.45	The next steps of the project Rune Stig Mortensen, Head of Division, Region of Southern Denmark

Moderator: Søren Adamsen, Senior Market Director, COWI

The Jutland Corridor-project is being financed by the Danish regions, the four Danish cities of Aarhus, Aalborg, Esbjerg and Odense, the Development Council of South Jutland (URS) as well as by the state of Schleswig-Holstein, the city of Hamburg and the European Union (ERDF).