TABLE 13

1. In the event of having promotional EU packages, those packages will be used first.
2. For each outgoing call, text or multimedia message sent, within the Euro Zone and from the Euro Zone to Poland, and for data transfer within the Euro Zone – according to the ordinance of the European Parliament and the Council of the EU no. 531/2012 of 13th June 2012 concerning roaming in public mobile communications networks within the Union – a toll equal to the regulated retail roaming services, basic national retail price for services to national mobile networks Subscribers as defined in § 1 of this Price List, will be charges.
3. In order to prevent the incorrect or irregular use of the regulated roaming retail services, the operator applies the Fair Use Policy.
4. The operator applies fair, reasonable and proportional control mechanisms, based on objective risk indicators of incorrect or irregular use transcending the periodic travels within the territory of the Union. Objective indicators cover the means designed to determine if the clients use national services more often than roaming services or if they are more often within their own country than in one of the member countries of the Union. Time spent, of a specific number, in the Euro Zone (log-in times to networks of roaming partners) and the use of services are monitored by the Operator.
5. Predominant use of the services, by the Subscriber, in his own country or predominant presence of a client who uses roaming during a determined period of observation, shall be considered as proof of proper and regular use of regulated roaming retail services.
6. The following shall be considered as incorrect or irregular use of retail roaming services:
  - a. use of roaming services for different purposes than periodic travels,
  - b. a long period of inactivity of the SIM card in Poland, used mainly, if not exclusively in roaming,
  - c. use of many SIM cards, by turns, by the same Subscriber as a part of roaming,
  - d. an organized resale of SIM cards in favour of persons not residing within the territory of Poland.
7. The operator may require the Subscribers, who use roaming, to present proof of permanent residence within a member country of the provider of roaming services or a proof of existence of other relations with such country, connected with a frequent presence within its territory for an extended time. In case where the Subscriber does not present such proof within 14 days from our notice, additional charges to fares in roaming shall be charged in the amount of:
  - a. 0,16 PLN gross for a minute of an outgoing call,
  - b. 0,05 PLN gross for a minute of a taken incoming call,
  - c. 0,05 PLN gross for a sent text message,
  - d. 0,04 PLN gross for a sent MMS,
  - e. 0,00 PLN gross for each MB of data transfer.
8. The operator may charge the aforementioned additional fees if within the period of at least 4 months, the Subscriber's number has been residing in the Euro Zone for at least half of this period, or the Subscriber uses, by turns, many SIM cards as a part of roaming.
9. The Subscriber shall be informed about the decision to apply the additional fee via SMS or another allowed way.
10. The Operator shall cease to charge any additional fees as soon as the outline of the User's use of the services will not indicate any risk of incorrect or irregular use.
11. The amount of additional fees for incoming calls, outgoing calls, texts, multimedia messages, data transfer and the sizes of GB limits shall be updated in accordance to the schedule and assumptions of the regulations regarding roaming.

12. In case where the Operator will not be able to recover the costs of providing roaming within the European Union, after acquiring the acceptance from the chairman of the Office of Electronic Communications, there may be charged additional fees to the prices of services in international roaming within the territory of the European Union.
13. All complaints regarding the provision of Telecommunications Services should be reported in accordance with the resolutions of the Regulations for the Telecommunications Services provision.
14. Voice for outgoing international roaming within the Euro Zone and the Euro Zone to Polish lasting up to 30 seconds fee is charged at the rate of half minute, and then every second of sixtieth minute rate.
15. For incoming voice calls while roaming abroad in the euro fee is charged for each second connection of 1/60 minute rate.
