NEWSLETTER No 68 OF 2017 FREE MODERATOR TRAINING WORKSHOP – DURBAN, KWA-ZULU NATAL

Good day Training Providers

Please take note that the PFTC would like to present a Free Moderator Training Workshop in Durban in Kwa-Zulu Natal. Bookings will be on a first come first serve basis. (20 seats currently available). So if you are interested in becoming a Moderator or attending the Moderator Workshop please put your name on the booking list by sending an email to etqa@pftc.co.za.

Once we have a confirmed list of interested individuals, arrangements will be made and a date and venue will be supplied.

We are inviting all experienced Assessors who would like to become Moderators with the PFTC, to attend a free workshop. Also welcome to attend, are any existing Moderators who would like to do a refresher workshop. (This is highly recommended for all moderators)

Requirements to qualify for the free moderator workshop:

1. 2 years active experience as an Assessor of firearm unit standards
2. PFTC Grading shoot successfully completed
3. Ethics Workshop completed (if you have not completed this yet, please book the first available workshop close to you and get it done)
4. Candidates must be in the employ of a PFTC accredited training provider.
5. Candidates must be a registered assessor with the PFTC for longer than 1 year.

On successful completion of the workshop you will be registered as a PFTC Moderator

Kind regards,
