28 July 2025

Good day Training Providers and Fellow Members

I hope this Newsletter finds you in good health.

Albert Einstein, once said the following:

“Weakness of attitude becomes weakness of character. Well done is better than well said.”

I would like to make use of this opportunity to thank you all for the efforts and inputs during 2025 up till now and want to encourage you to continue with doing the right thing, right!

Our Chairperson, Tebogo Kwape and the rest of the NEC also wishes you the best for the remaining part of 2025. He has been putting in a lot of effort trying to keep the PFTC on track with regard to all the new developments, including some very concerning challenges we still face as Industry.
