“Completing my BSc at SBS Swiss Business School has been an invaluable experience, especially at a time when higher education is challenged for real-world impact. The program didn't just teach theory: it emphasized soft skills, collaboration, and preparing for tangible career outcomes. I'm also grateful for the deep connections I formed with peers and professors, which mirror the 'human element' universities must preserve amid technological change. This combination of academic rigor, supportive community, and international outlook has prepared me for the next steps in my career and personal growth. That being said, I can only say, thank SBS!”
