TAKREEM award announces laureates

June 11, 2013 01:09 AM

The Daily Star

BEIRUT: The jury board for the annual TAKREEM Arab achievement awards selected laureates for this year's ceremony in a meeting in Paris, according to a statement from the organization Monday.

The winners, who will be announced during the awards ceremony in November 2013, will be recognized for their work in fields as diverse as humanitarian and civic service, environmental development, scientific and technological achievement, corporate leadership, entrepreneurship and education. TAKREEM was founded by media figure Ricardo Karam to recognize the work of Arabs.
