NEC appoints Stelkom as Business Partner for Enterprise Solutions in Slovenia

Hilversum, Ljubljana, 23 January 2017 – NEC Enterprise Solutions, a global leader in enterprise Communications & IT solutions, today announced that it has appointed Stelkom as its new Smart Enterprise Business Partner in Slovenia. Stelkom will provide Slovenian organizations with NEC's latest range of advanced IT and communications solutions for enhanced productivity, efficiency and business continuity.

A powerful extension to the Stelkom portfolio

"We are very pleased to have Stelkom as Business Partner in Slovenia", says Mark Haasjes of NEC Enterprise Solutions. "Stelkom is very familiar with our products and their knowledge of the needs of organizations in the region will help us promote our powerful NEC range of solutions in this strong growing market."

"The NEC Enterprise IT and Communications portfolio is a very much needed complement to our portfolio of products and services", says Igor Maher, CEO of Stelkom. "The highly successful NEC solutions are based on the latest technology and are deployed within many enterprise organisations. With their powerful and intuitive applications that meet the needs of an increasingly mobile workforce, they are an excellent fit to enterprise customer requirements in Slovenia. Our growing market for enterprise solutions offers us significant business opportunities that we aim to take full advantage of", he concludes.
