Why choose this program?

- Learn what to do so that people would want to and could work for you
- Learn the path to stable interpersonal work relationships
- We will show you how to move from resolving issues to vitality

Who is it for?

All managers who want learn about the biggest managerial mistakes – and, most importantly, learn how to solve them or, ideally, prevent them.

Topics

- A manager's path to maturity
- How to deal with conflicts, competition, collaboration, passivity, dedication, and destruction
- Vitality as the next level after effectiveness, usefulness, stability, and dynamics
- Dynamics: anticipation, influencing one's environment, people's activity, managing changes
- Usefulness: subjects, needs, competitive advantages, products
- Effectiveness: processes, projects, human resources, structures
- Stability: goals, approaches, result monitoring, feedback, focus and motivation of people
- Strategy in life, work and business – how to bring it to life

Methods and techniques

Discussions, model situations, examples and case studies.
