Do you believe that in one evening you can get a deeper insight into your personal development? Understand your loved ones, colleagues at work and thus improve your communication and collaboration with them?

Each of the nine evenings we will experience one type of personality. Within a few hours, you will deepen your understanding of each personality type.

What will you gain?

- Understand the higher quality of each personality and its practical use in everyday life.
- Understand the inner motives of each personality type – their habit structure
- Clear support for growth and development of each personality type – including a panel interview with a guest of a given personality type
- Tips on how to improve collaboration and communication with a particular type of personality.

All of the nine evenings are suitable for all those who want deeply understand themselves and others and use this understanding for their growth and to improve the quality of relationships and collaboration. Every month, we get to enjoy self-awareness with one enneagram personality type, so that we can “meet” all the personality types within a year.

Uniqueness of the program lies mainly in deepening and supporting personal growth especially for participants of Emotional Leadership, Leadership and Personal Development with Enneagram and all those who are familiar with the enneagram.
