③ 🏛️ THE OLD TOWN HALL

In the summer of 1438 the former town hall was severely damaged by a major town fire. The town council decided that the new town hall should be freestanding. It chose a new location on the market field, which was little more than a sodden peat bog at the time. On the right facing wall you can see the carillon with mechanical puppets which were added in 1961. The leading figure in the carillon is Floris V, who granted Gouda its town charter in 1272.

The town hall is temporarily closed for extensive sustainable renovation work.

The iconic building is expected to reopen in all its glory mid-2027.

14 February - 30 August 2026

Arnon Grunberg, Stephan Sanders, Naema Tahir, as well as citizens of Gouda share their story in Faith. The exhibition reflects on the big questions that come with being human and shows that - whether you are religious or not - there are a surprising number of things we all have in common.

Gouda Tapestries

26 September 2026 - 28 March 2027

In the 17th and 18th century the largest, most valuable and most prestigious art objects of the Low Countries were produced in Gouda: precious, expertly woven tapestries. Among them are the meters-long tapestry from the wedding hall of the town hall of Gouda, as well as a series of woven scenes from the collections of the Rijksmuseum, the Petit Palais in Paris and Skokloster Castle in Sweden. For the first time these works of art will return to the town where they were made, telling a story of migration and craftsmanship.

🕒 📍 GOUDA CHEESE MARKET

Gouda, a Thursday morning somewhere between April and September. It is not long before you hear the clapping of hands of the cheese traders and farmers. And here they are: the well-known Gouda cheese girls surrounded by spectators. Horse-drawn cheese carts are coming and going. They come to a halt just in front of the Goudse Waag. Cheese boys jump off and start throwing over the cheeses, unloading the carts. The cheeses are then weighed on the original scales in the Goudse Waag.

You can enjoy the world-famous cheese, as well as stalls packed with local products. Besides cheese trading and cheese making, there is also a lively craft market. Young cheese fans can go to the Children's Cheese Market behind the Goudse Waag that offers lots of games and fun. For more, go to page 27.

There is also plenty to do in Gouda in the afternoon. For example, you can go on a boat trip through the canals or join the Goudse Gidsen Gilde for a walking tour. At Berg's Bakery you can take part in a syrup waffle baking workshop.

The Gouda Cheese Market is a spectacular historic and nostalgic scene. If you would like to visit the cheese market, make sure you are on time. The traditional cheese market takes place every Thursday morning from 10.00 to 12.30 hrs during the period from 2 April - 27 August (except on Ascension Day, 14 May).

» Gouda Clay Pipes

A Gouda pipe is a clay tobacco pipe smoked by many men in the 18th century. In 1606 English mercenaries arrived in the Netherlands as reinforcements for Gouda. They taught the people of Gouda how to make the pipes. Later, in 1660, the Guild of Gouda Pipe Makers was founded. With the arrival of wooden pipes and the cigar, and with the popularity of cigarettes, the craft was almost lost. The Gouda pipes can be admired in the open depot of Museum Gouda. Are you looking for a genuine Gouda clay pipe? Then go to the oldest tobacco shop in the Netherlands:

Oldest tobacco shop in the Netherlands from 1836

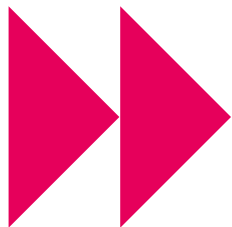

The oldest tobacco shop in the Netherlands, D.G. van Vreumingen, is situated in the shadow of the Sint-Janskerk with a view of the illustrious old town hall. Everything here is suffused with history: the building

'De Eenhoorn' that dates back to 1367, the 275-year-old pots of sniffing tobacco on the shelves and the advertising posters from the 1960s. It is as if you are in a living museum from the late 19th century. It is also the only shop that still sells the age-old Gouda clay pipe. A lovely place to visit. Also for non-smokers it is a great experience to have a look around.

MUSEUM HARBOUR GOUDA

Gouda played a major role in shipping as early as the 12th century. Due to its central location the town offered passage to ships en route to Amsterdam and Flanders in the Middle Ages. After the 15th century Gouda's role in international shipping fell into decline. Today historic clippers, barges, tjalken (Dutch sailing vessels with a characteristic spritsail), tugboats and straight-stem barges lie majestically alongside each other in the Museum Harbour. One of the hidden gems of Gouda! For a walking route in two languages (NL/EN), go to exploregouda.nl. There is also a route especially for kids! Enjoy a drink and a view of the historic fleet in the former captain's waiting room, now Museum Harbour Café IJsselhuis Gouda.

MOORING AT MORE THAN 200 MOORING PLACES

If you visit Gouda by boat, you can moor at one of the town's 200 berths. Small and medium-sized boats can moor at Turfsingel, Gouwe, Regentessenplantsoen, Haven and IJsselkade. Yachts larger than 12 metres can be moored at Turfsingel.
